

BRING A World of Flavor TO YOUR SENIOR LIVING MENU

Today's seniors want more than just meat and potatoes. They're adventurous diners looking for multicultural culinary experiences. Turkey is an excellent protein to use in worldly dishes that are sure to be a hit with residents.

TIP

Transport taste buds with this Filipino-style Turkey Adobo Bowl.

TURKEY IS A NUTRITIOUS CANVAS FOR GLOBAL FLAVORS

- Rich in protein, vitamins and minerals to support healthy aging
- Delicious in multicultural recipes
- Versatile products inspire culinary creativity

TIP

This Caribbean-influenced Jerk Turkey with Coconut Rice offers a taste of island life.

CUISINE CRAVINGS

32%

of senior citizens consider themselves "food explorers."

68%

of baby boomers prefer variety in their diets.

70%

of boomers say taste is a priority.

TIP

Serve a Latin-infused dish with vibrant Sazón seasoning in Arroz Con Pavo.

Sources:
seniordining.org/senior-dining-news/top-food-trends-shaping-senior-living-dining-in-2025
ccl-hg.com/perspectives/key-dining-challenges-in-senior-living-and-implications-for-the-future/restaura.com/the-importance-of-staying-current-with-culinary-trends-in-senior-living/foodservicedirector.com/senior-dining-meals/could-perceived-lack-of-food-choices-be-keeping-boomers-away-from-senior-living/foodservicedirector.com/foodservice-operations/how-baby-boomers-keep-changing-foodservice